Democrats Will Have a Walkaway in Judicial Election. (Special to The Herald.)

Eureka, Utah, Aug. 31.-The Democrats of Eureka are working tooth and nail this fall to hand the Republicans what is really coming to them. The information is that Joshua Greenwood, the present judge of the Fifth judicial district court, will have no difficulty in receiving the nomination. David Morris of Washington county seems to be the favorite in the J. A. Meiville of Millard county, the present Republican district attorney, who says he has a "cinch" for the Republican nomination for the judgeship, is chairman of the Republican judicial committee. Of course, if he has a "cinch" it is because of hanging on to the chairmanship of this committee and fixing the selection of delegates to the judicial convention by county conventions in all counties except Melville had any such spirit of fairness Melville had any such spirit of fairbook and justness as is requisite for the position of judge he would have resigned his large anship long before he acquired his Utah chairmanship long before he acquired his "cinch." Not having done so, the Demorrats assume that he is devoid of any such suirit of fairness, and they will use this apparent manifestation of unfairness

The Democrats feel that they will win the judge and the district attorney this fall, and information from some Republicans who are on the inside of matters is to the effect that Melville's candidacy is rather a "josh," as they feel that four years ago he lent himself to a proposition whereby every candidate for the judgeship of the Fifth judicial district was defeated by a combination of the Melville and Greenwood forces against him during the coming campaign, should he get the nomination

The Democrats know that there is a split in the Republicans over this deal made four years ago, and no doubt it will crop out at the coming judicial convention of the Republicans at Milford, to be held Sept. 12. Taking into consideration this dissension among the Republicans, the candidates on the Democratic judicial ticket will probably have an easy walkaway in the coming election.
